

TILDEN'S CANDIDATE.

In 1868 John T. Hoffman, then Mayor of New York city, and of course a member of the ring, as he was a great friend of Tweed and Tilden, was fraudulently elected Governor of the Empire State. On this occasion twenty thousand spurious votes were smuggled in, giving the State to Democrats. Mr. Tilden was chairman of the Democratic State Committee, and the famous circular in regard to his election was signed by him. He denied all agency in issuing it when the fraud was discovered, but he did not attempt to prosecute those who, according to his disclaimer, had forged his name. He might have safely done so, for the courts were in the ring, and the trial would have been a farce, as Mr. Tilden must have been aware; and it is surprising that a man of his cunning did not, feeling secure, play the whole thing out. The circular referred to is as follows:

ROOMS OF THE DEM. STATE COM.
October 27, 1868.
MY DEAR SIR: Please at once communicate with some reliable person in three or four principal towns and in each city of your county, and request him (expenses duly arranged for at this end) to telegraph to Wm. M. Tweed, Tammany Hall, at the minute of closing the polls, not waiting for the count, such person's estimate of the vote. Let the telegram be as follows: "This town will show a Democratic gain (or loss) over last year of (number.)" Or this one if sufficiently certain: "This town will give a Republican (or Democratic) majority of _____."

There is, of course, an important object to be obtained by a simultaneous transmission at the hour of closing the polls, but not longer waiting. Opportunity can be taken at the usual half-hour lull in telegraphic communications over lines before actual results begin to be declared, and before the Associated Press absorb the telegraph with returns and interfere with individual messages, and give orders to carefully watch the count.

Very truly yours,
SAMUEL J. TILDEN,
Chairman.

The "important object" was thus obtained. The State returns were carefully revised and estimated, and it was found that Hoffman was defeated by 41,204 majority. Then the city returns were "doctored" by the addition of 37,000 ballots which had never been in the hands of voters, other than Tweed, Tilden, & Co.—had never been legally deposited—but which gave a majority in the city of New York of 59,150 for Hoffman!

If the country is to enjoy peace in the future Democracy must be defeated. If we are to maintain the value of our currency Democracy must be defeated. If the nation is to live and grow, the enemy of its peace and prosperity must be defeated. The humblest citizen has a vital interest at stake in keeping the Government out of the hands of those who have no sympathy for its principles of freedom and equality. Let all who value good government work unceasingly for the success of the Republican ticket. Our national salvation depends upon it.

Tilden's supporters deny that he ever remarked to ex-Governor Underwood, of Vermont, during the war, that "any United States soldier on Southern soil could be sued for trespass." Governor Underwood reiterates his assertion, and states that the conversation took place between them on the piazza of Congress Hall, at Saratoga. He also says that Tilden expressed surprise that he (the Governor) did not hold the same opinion with himself.

Since it was settled that New York is Tilden's last hope, and an uncertain one at that, the canals have been found to be in a shocking condition. It is discovered, moreover, that the necessary force of men to make the repairs cannot be had in the State. They have to be imported by thousands from adjoining States. Their engagement will last until the first Tuesday in November. This is the last act in Sam Tilden's great drama of canal reform.

The official returns of the Ohio election give Barnes, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, 6,956 majority; Boynton, for Supreme Judge, 9,617 majority; Evans, for member of Board of Public Works, 7,393 majority. The Republican majority on the Congressional vote is 12,331. The State is good for 20,000 for Hayes.

During a parade of a Democratic club the other night, one of the colored men which are now a prominent feature in every Democratic procession stepped into a sample room to borrow a match, and when he came out the tip of his nose and all of his chin was stark, staring, strangely white.

The fact is fully substantiated that the Syndicate having in charge the placing of the new 4 per cent. loan have said that the election of Tilden will seriously effect the success of the new loan,—indeed stop it altogether. Can we have better evidence of the extreme danger to the country of his Presidential aspirations?

A nimble fellow—The man who ran up his flag.

All wanting Fruit Farms, especially adapted to the growth of the Vine, where it is an established success and pays large profit. The land is also adapted to the growth of Peaches, Pears, Apples and small fruits; also Grain, Grass and Vegetables.

Many hundred of excellent Vineyards, Orchards and Farms, can now be seen. The location is only 34 miles south of Philadelphia, by Railroad, in a mild, delightful climate, and at the very doors of the New York and Philadelphia Markets. Another Railroad runs direct to New York.

The place is already large, successful and prosperous. Churches, Schools, and other privileges are already established. Also, manufacturing of Shoes, Clothing, Glass, Straw Goods, and other things, at which different members of a family can procure employment.

It has been a health resort for some years past for people suffering from pulmonary affections, Catarrh, Ague, and debility; many thousands have entirely recovered.

Price of Farm Land $25.00 per acre, payable in installments, within the period of four years. In this climate, planted out to vines, 20 acres of land will count fully as much as 100 acres further north.

Persons unacquainted with fruit growing can become familiar with it in a short time on account of surroundings.

Five acre, one acre, and town lots, in the town of Landsville and Vineland, also for sale.

Whilst visiting the Centennial Exhibition, Vineland can be visited at small expense.

A paper containing full information, will be sent upon application to CHARLES K. LANDIS, Vineland, N. J., free of cost.

The following is an extract from a description of Vineland, published in the New York Tribune, by the well-known Agriculturist, Solon Robinson:

All the farmers were of the "well to do" sort, and some of them, who have turned their attention to fruits and market gardening, have grown rich. The soil is loam, varying from sandy to clayey, and surface gently undulating, intersected with small streams and occasional wet meadows in which deposits of peat or muck are stored, sufficient to fertilize the whole upland surface, after it has been exhausted of its natural fertility.

It is certainly one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position, and suitable condition for pleasant farming, that we know of this side of the Western prairies. We found some of the oldest farms apparently just as profitably productive as when first cleared of forest fifty or a hundred years ago.

The geologist would soon discover the cause of this continued fertility. The whole country is a marine deposit, and all through the soil we found evidences of calcareous substances, generally in the form of indurated calcareous marl, showing many distinct forms of ancient shells, of the tertiary formation; and this marly substance is scattered all through the soil, in a very comminuted form, and in the exact condition most easily assimilated by such plants as the farmer desires to cultivate.

APPLETON'S AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA.

NEW REVISED EDITION.
ENTIRELY REWRITTEN BY THE ABLEST WRITERS ON EVERY SUBJECT.

Printed from New Type, and Illustrated with several Thousand Engravings and Maps.

The work originally published under the title of THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA was completed in 1865, since which time the all parts of the United States have attained to such developments which science, and the progress of every branch of science, literature, and art, have induced the editors and publishers to submit it to an exact and thorough revision, and to issue a new edition entitled

THE AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA.

Within the last ten years the progress of discovery in every department of knowledge has made a new work of reference an imperative want.

The movement of political affairs has kept pace with the discoveries of science, and their fruitful application to the industrial and useful arts and the convenience and refinement of social life. Great wars and consequent revolutions have occurred, involving national changes of peculiar moment. The civil war of our own country, which was at its height when the last volume of the old work appeared, has happily been ended, and a new course of commercial and industrial activity has been commenced. Large accessions to our

GEOGRAPHICAL KNOWLEDGE

Have been made by the indefatigable explorers of Africa.
The great political revolutions of the last decade, with the natural result of the lapse of time, have brought into public view a multitude of new men, whose names are in every one's mouth, and of whose lives every one is curious to know the particulars. Great battles have been fought and important sieges maintained, of which the details are as yet preserved only in the newspapers or in the transient publications of the day, but which ought now to take their place in

PERMANENT AND AUTHENTIC HISTORY.

In preparing the present edition for the press, it has accordingly been the aim of the editors to bring down the information to the latest possible dates, and to furnish an accurate account of the most recent discoveries in science, of every fresh production in literature, and of the newest inventions in the practical arts, as well as to give a succinct and original record of the progress of

POLITICAL AND HISTORICAL EVENTS.

The work has been begun after long and careful preliminary labor, and with the most ample resources for carrying it on to a successful termination.
None of the original stereotype plates have been used, but every page has been PRINTED ON NEW TYPE.

Forming in fact a new Cyclopaedia, with the same plan and compass as its predecessor, but with a far greater pecuniary expenditure, and with such improvements in its composition as have been suggested by longer experience and enlarged knowledge.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS

which are introduced for the first time in the present edition have been added not for the sake of pictorial effect, but to give greater lucidity and force to the explanations in the text. They embrace all branches of science and art, and remark-able features of scenery, architecture, and art, as well as the various processes of mechanics and manufactures. Although intended for instruction rather than entertainment, no pains have been spared to insure their

ARTISTIC EXCELLENCE.

The cost of their execution is enormous, and it is believed they will find a welcome reception as an admirable feature of the Cyclopaedia, and worthy of its high character.

This work is sold to subscribers only; payable on delivery of each volume. It will be complete in Seventeen Large Octavo Volumes, each containing about 800 pages, fully illustrated with several thousand Wood Engravings, and with numerous colored Lithographic Maps.
